From Our Pastor

The Feast Day of the Annunciation

This week we celebrate the feast day of the Annunciation when the second Person of the Holy Trinity became a human being in Mary's womb. Since that moment we have no longer had to search for God somewhere in the far off heavens. From the moment He took on our human nature we can find God in every neighbor we meet. He even said it: "Insofar as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). He is our Brother and His Father is ours.

But there is also a Mother in this picture. Being a Trinity, God likes to bring others into the picture. In fact, Mary is the place where the Incarnation took place. The point of unity between Jesus's human and divine nature is located in her. She's the Mother of Unity, of our unity in Jesus. She sees Jesus in every human being: she sees her own son, her own daughter.

It's not always easy for us to see Jesus in others. We may believe that He's there by faith, but so are their sins and defects. There is a joke about the stoning of the woman caught in adultery. Jesus says to let the one without sin cast the first stone. A stone flies from the crowd. Jesus sighs: "Mom, I thought I asked you to stay home today." Yes, Mary could judge the sins and shortcomings that she sees in us. But she doesn't, she never throws stones.

On the contrary, she's always shown herself to be the advocate, the mother of the most unfortunate. And when they feel the judgement of God is upon them, it is to her that countless numbers of Christians have run for help. Why? Because she's a mother and mothers know only how to love. It's typical of a mother to love her children as herself because there is something of herself in them. We too can find something of ourselves in others, we can find Jesus in them. And they can find something of our Mother in us.

Everyone – man, woman, boy or girl – is a little bit like their father and a little bit like their mother (otherwise we'd all be clones). We can honor our Heavenly Mother by imitating her love. With each neighbor, at home, at work, or on the street, with the people we speak to over the phone or carry out our daily work – with every person we meet we can say: "I'll act as if I were his or her mother," and behave accordingly. Mothers serve, mothers find excuses, mothers are always full of hope. Then, we'll never throw stones and we'll bring Mary's presence into our world.

La Fiesta de la Anunciación

Esta semana celebramos la fiesta de la Anunciación cuando la segunda Persona de la Santísima Trinidad se hizo hombre en el vientre de María. Desde ese momento nosotros no tenemos que buscar a Dios en los lejanos cielos. Desde el momento en que Él tomó nuestra naturaleza humana nosotros podemos encontrar a Dios en cada prójimo que conocemos. Él inclusive lo dijo: “En verdad les digo que, cuando lo hicieron con uno de estos más pequeños que son mis hermanos, lo hicieron conmigo” (Mt 25:40). Él es nuestro Hermano y su Padre es el nuestro.

Pero también existe una Madre en esta escena. Siendo una Trinidad, a Dios le gusta traer a otros a la escena. De hecho, María es el sitio en el cual se realizó la Encarnación. El punto de unidad entre Jesús humano y la divina naturaleza está localizado en ella. Ella es la Madre de Unidad, de nuestra unidad en Jesús. Ella ve a Jesús en cada ser humano: ella ve a su propio hijo, su propia hija.

No siempre es fácil para nosotros ver a Jesús en los demás. La fe nos hace creer que Él está en ellos, pero también están sus pecados y defectos. Existe un chiste acerca de la mujer que iba a ser apedreada por haber cometido adulterio. Jesús dice que el que esté libre de pecado tire la primera piedra. Una piedra sale de donde se encuentra la gente y Jesús suspira: “Mamá, qué no te dije que te quedaras hoy en casa.” Sí, María podría juzgar los pecados y deficiencias que ella ve en nosotros. Pero ella no lo hace, ella nunca tira piedras.

Al contrario, ella siempre interfiere como abogada, la madre de los más desafortunados. Y cuando ellos sienten el juicio de Dios cerca, es a ella que un sin número de Cristianos corren por su ayuda. Porque? Porque ella es una madre y las madres solo saben como amar. Es típico de una madre amar a sus hijos como a ella misma porque hay algo de ella misma en ellos. Nosotros también podemos encontrar algo de nosotros en otros, podemos encontrar a Jesús en ellos. Y ellos pueden encontrar algo de nuestra Madre en nosotros.

Todos - hombre, mujer, niño o niña es un poco como su padre y un poco como su madre (de otra manera todos seríamos clones). Podemos honrar a nuestra Madre Celestial imitando su amor. Con cada prójimo, en casa, en el trabajo, o en la calle, con la gente con quien hablamos y por teléfono o cuando trabajamos diariamente - con cada persona que conocemos podemos decir: “Yo voy a actuar como si fuera su madre,” y tratarnos de acuerdo a ello. Las madres sirven, las madres encuentran excusas, las madres siempre están llenas de esperanza. Entonces, nosotros nunca tiraremos piedras más bien traeremos la presencia de María en el mundo.
