From Our Pastor

May is the month when Christians around the world celebrate the love of our Mother Mary for us. Why? Because she is a mother and therefore like a powerful magnet: the whole world feels attracted to her. Nowadays she's a popular topic for journalists. She recently appeared on the front covers of National Geographic and Time. Every culture has its own Madonna, and Mary is also venerated by Muslims: she is the greatest among all the women of Creation. From the first century, the Jewish people recognized her as the Mother of Jeshua, the prophet; the Riteous Woman. In the Royal Gardens of Thailand there is a garden to the feminine Buddha. Her ears are long to show that she is listening to us, and her nose is very long, representing her deep compassion. The statue was probably inspired by a picture of Our Lady that the first Christian missionaries showed to Buddhist monks.

It's as if God had planted Mary like secret seed of brotherhood in all the cultures of the world. She is the common denominator who could really unite us. She is our Mother and we are her children, so we should resemble our Heavenly Mother, just as we should resemble our Heaven Father who is compassionate to all. I think there would be an endless number of ways that we could try to resemble her. I'd like to suggest one in particular.

It is alleged that the Virgin Mary appeared to a group of young people. One day, a theologian asked the young visionaries what impressed them most about the Virgin Mary. They all agreed that it was intense beauty and her intense love for each and every person. This word "intense" is very interesting, intense beauty and intense love for each person. One day, one of the youngest visionaries was looking at the Virgin Mary, completely taken by her beauty. Suddenly he asked her: "But how can you be so beautiful?" Then Our Lady reached down and kissed him on the forehead. "I'm beautiful because I love. You love, and you'll be beautiful too." The best compliment you can give a person even after they're dead is to say that he or she was a beautiful human being. (It's possible to be very attractive, and an ugly human being.)

In today's world we could imitate Mary in her intense love for every person, be Mary, so that we can shine with her beauty. Then, when others see that beauty in us, they'll be consoled and their spirits elevated to God.

The Church calls Mary the Mother of Fairest Love. If we love, when we look at ourselves in the mirror and ask, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fairest of them all?" Our mirror will answer us: "It's you!" And Mary will smile at seeing a little bit of herself in us.

De Parte de Nuestro Pastor

Mayo es el mes en que cristianos alrededor del mundo celebran el amor de nuestra Madre María por nosotros. Porque? Ella es una madre. María es también el tema de hoy por escritores. Recientemente ha aparecido en la portada de las revistas National Geographic, y en Time magazine. Si, ella es el imán más potente: todo el mundo se siente atraído a ella porque ella es la Madre. Cada cultura tiene su propia Madonna. También María es venerada por los musulmanes: ella es la más grande entre todas las mujeres de la Creación. Desde el siglo primero, Judíos la reconocen como Madre de Yeshua, el profeta; la Mujer Justa. En los Jardines Reales de Tailandia, hay un jardín a La Buda femenina. Sus orejas son largas, expresando que ella nos está escuchando y su nariz es demasiado larga, representando su profunda compasión. La estatua fue probablemente inspirada por una Madonna que fue mostrada o dada a los monjes budistas por los primeros misioneros católicos.

Es como si Dios hubiera plantado a María como una semilla oculta de la fraternidad en todas las culturas. Ella es un denominador común que nos puede reunir. Ella es nuestra Madre y si nosotros somos sus hijos, entonces debemos parecernos a nuestra Madre Celestial, así como nuestro Padre Celestial que es compasivo hacia todos.

Creo que hay un número infinito de formas que podríamos tratar de hacer eso. Me gustaría sugerir una en particular. Se dice que la Virgen María apareció a un grupo de jóvenes. Un día, un teólogo les pregunto a los jóvenes visionarios lo que les impresionó más sobre la Virgen. Todos estuvieron de acuerdo: su intensa belleza y intenso amor por cada persona. Esa palabra "intensa" es muy interesante, intensa belleza e intenso amor para cada persona. Un día, uno de los visionarios más joven estaba mirando a la Virgen, tomado por su belleza. De repente, él le preguntó: "Pero, ¿cómo puedes ser tan hermosa?" Entonces Nuestra Señora se agachó, lo levantó y le dio un beso en la frente. Ella le dijo: "Soy hermosa porque amo. Ama, e tu serás hermoso también." Estas son las maravillosas palabras de Nuestra Señora. Nos gustaría ser recordados como gente hermosa. En los funerales, que es el mejor cumplido que alguien pudiera dar a una persona fallecida: él o ella era un ser humano hermoso. (Es posible ser muy guapo, y ser una persona fea.)

En el mundo de hoy debemos imitar a María en su intenso amor por cada ser humano, ser María, para poder brillar con su belleza. De manera que cuando la gente vea esta belleza en nosotros puedan ser consolados y elevar sus espíritus a Dios.

La Iglesia llama a María la Madre del Amor Hermoso. Si amamos, cuando mirándonos al espejo le preguntemos "Espejo, espejo, en la pared, ¿quién es la más bella de todas?" El espejo nos dira: "Eres tu!" Y María, nuestra Madre, sonreirá al ver un poco de ella en nosotros.
